Incre were eleven cases in the police court yesterday, all disorderlies. Charles Bolden was up for keeping a disorderly house, and it cost him over $14. Three girls caught in his house went to jail. A fourth eluded the officers, but will be up this morning. Two men went to the hill and the rest got the isual fines.

Counterteit Dellars.

Counteriet Dollars.

There is evidently an organized gang of counterfediers at work in and about Wheeling. A great number of counterfediet silver dollars, nearly all of the date of 1887, have been issued here, and have been noticed by merchants in all parts of town. The base coins are good initations and unless carefully scrutinized are not detected by the ordinary money handler.

Accident and Runaway.

On Monday evening, while Charles Kreuter and Fritz Baeshar were sitting in a dog cart on North Main street near Sixth, watching some boys who were seremading a man in that vicinity, a street car came along, and striking the cart, mashed it badly, and threw the two men out. The horse ran off and was not found till last night, when it was discovered in the woods nine miles up in the country.

Domestic Difficulties

Domestic Difficulties.

Many of the trials and troubles of domestic life arise from the headaches/sand rafiled temper that nearly always follow the worry of bread baking. Honsewives who use Marvin's Royal Loaf or Red Seal bread escape all this bother and are always sure of having their tables supplied with the finest bread in the land. Ask your grocer for Marvin's bread.

CHAIRMAN HAHN HERE.

An Ohlo Pollifeian on the Situation Over in Hon, W. M. Hahn, Canal Commissioner and Chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee of Ohio, passed through last night with his wife on his waypto Columbus. Mr. Hahn says that the Republican organization in Ohio is in excellent condition. There is no dissatisfaction. Governor Campbell's fight with his own party is hurting the Democracy. The Democratic gerymander was intended to leave the Republicans with but six Congressional districts in the State, but the Republicans will carry more than six districts. McKinley has a hard fight, but not a hopeless one. His opponent, Warwick, has money and is spending it. Democrats all over the country are sending money to defeat McKintey. A special fund for this purpose has been raised in the South. Ex-Governor Foster is making a game fight sgainst odds, and he says he will be the Congressman from his district. "We are watching West Virginia," said Mr. Hahn, "with great interest. You Republicans have done splendidly in recent years. Yours is bound to be a reliable Republican State." passed through last night with his wife
